

THE RURAL SCRIBE.

The Descent of Man.
(Robinson Record.)

I. J. Jamison of New York state dropped in for a few days upon his cousin, Hugh Jamison upon his return trip home from the coast, where he has been visiting.

Good Pasture For Dead Ones.
(Caldwell Tribune.)

W. S. Flora this week purchased 120 head of cattle from a Nampa butcher and while taking them to Jordan Valley they were poisoned by Lark spur and 23 head died. They were turned out to pasture across Snake river.

A Handsome Bequest.
(Heber City Wave.)

The Theatre given by the home dramatic company on last Saturday night was an immense success.

Paonia Honored.
(Marble, Colo., Current.)

Milton Spencer and family have been invited to meet the presidential party at Redstone in April, and join in the festivities. It is probable that they will accept. This is quite a distinguished favor and Paonia will appreciate being so recognized.

Likes Mutton.
(Payette Independent.)

Eugene Stegner will turn his attention exclusively to sheep.

Parisian Improvements.
(Paris, Ida., Post.)

Thomas Jones is putting up a nice little building on the old Tithing lot on First South Street, which will help the appearance of the street very much.

Quite a Cargo.
(Bountiful Clipper.)

The friends of Heber Fernelius came to his home last Wednesday evening loaded down with picnic and music. All had a jolly good time.

Osculation Handicapped.
(American Falls Advertiser.)

One of the shearers received a bad cut on the upper lip Thursday accidentally.

The Village Wit.
(Malad City Advocate.)

Our school teacher, James A. Cragun, reports that his father had a terrible fall the other night and was unconscious for about eight hours. Jim said he fell asleep. See!

Going Some.
(Bellevue News.)

Morris George is taking anti-fat in eight-hour shifts at Muldoon.

Is a Busy Man.

Deer Flat, April 7.—Mr. Jack Shew has been nursing a number of pet boils the past week.

Fortune For Cory.
(Heber City Wave.)

The benefit dance in Turner's hall last Friday night for Cory Hanks was fairly well patronized and netted the gentleman about eleven dollars. The local basketball teams playing in Midway Saturday night presented him with about thirteen dollars.

At Large Again.
(Brigham City Report.)

Bp. Facer, of Willard, was seen on our streets Saturday.

A Skilled Mechanic.
(St. Anthony News.)

A good shave without pain or chloroform, in the basement barber shop.

A Generous Judge.
(Bellevue News.)

After repeated warning from the authorities, Mike Nicholson, a Swede miner, was run in election day for fast riding through the streets. Judge Redsull gave him ten dollars and costs, a matter of sixteen dollars and fifty cents.

Poor Luck For Preacher.
(St. Anthony Peak Chronicle.)

It is rumored that Preacher Adams is a hot fisherman.

SONG.

O to think, O to think as I see her stand there
With the rose that I plucked in her glorious hair,
In the robe that I love,
So demure and so neat,
I am lord of her lips and her eyes and her feet!

O to think, O to think when the last hedge is leapt,
I shall make her heart throb
In its cradle of lace,
As the lord of her hair and her breast and her face!

O to think, O to think when our wedding bells ring,
When our love's at the summer but life's at the spring,
I shall guard her asleep
As my hound guards her glove,
Being lord of her life and her breast and her love!

--Norman Gale.
